Dear _____________________,

This letter concerns the publication of a paper in Berkeley Scientific Journal written by an undergraduate researcher.

Before publication, we require an authorization signature by the principal investigator, or the faculty member that oversaw the research. The following paper was submitted for publication:

__________________________________________________________________

If you authorize this paper for publication in Berkeley Scientific, please sign the approval form below, scan, and email it to research.bsj@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Research Section Staff
Berkeley Scientific Journal

------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

I hereby authorize the publication of

__________________________________________________________

in the coming issue of Berkeley Scientific.

_________________________  __________________________
Signature  Date

________________________________________
Print Name